

Wes Fillingame, MS, ATC, LAT

Originally from Sterlington, Louisiana, Wes received his Bachelors of Science in Kinesiology and Health Promotions at Louisiana Tech University in 2005. During that time, Wes assisted the Glennwood Sports Medicine staff in providing sports coverage for all local city high schools. Following that Wes went on to earn his Master of Science degree in Kinesiology and Athletic Training from the University of Arkansas in 2007. During his time there, Wes worked with the Razorback football team, Ladyback softball team, and track and field athletes. He also worked with the Har-Ber Springdale High School football and basketball teams while attending the University of Arkansas. Following his graduation from the University of Arkansas, Wes was employed by Highlands Medical Center in Scottsboro, Alabama where he provided athletic training services for a local high school. Wes has been on the Centerpoint Sports Care team since August of 2008, and has the primary responsibility of providing healthcare coverage for William Chrisman High School athletics.

Oji Johnson, MS, ATC

Oji is a certified Athletic Trainer with 10 years of Sports Medicine and Athletic Training experience. Oji Graduated from Missouri State University with a B.S. in Sports Medicine/Athletic Training as well as his Masters in Health Management and Wellness Promotion. Oji has worked in a variety of settings including College, High School, Clinical/ orthopedic rehab, Work Hardening Specialist, Semi-Professional Football League, Cape Code Collegiate Baseball League, and Kansas City Chiefs Cheerleaders.

Nikki Leyva, MS, ATC, LAT

Nikki graduated from Park University in Parkville, Missouri in 2004 with a Bachelor of Arts in Athletic Training. She then attended Georgia State University in Atlanta, Georgia, where she completed a Master of Science in Sports Medicine in 2006. While at GSU, she worked as a graduate assistant Athletic Trainer for Westminster, a Christian K-12 independent school with over 80 athletic teams. She has provided athletic training services for U.S. Womens National Soccer team, and USA Volleyball Junior Olympic Boys championships in 2006. Her experience also includes working for the Kansas City Wizards Major League Soccer team. Nikki is currently employed by Centerpoint Medical Center and has worked as an Athletic Trainer for Truman High School in Independence, Missouri since 2006.

Adam Rolf, PT, DPT, ATC/L

After graduating from Creighton University with a B.S. in Athletic Training, Adam earned his Doctorate in Physical Therapy from Rockhurst University. His professional interests involve rehabilitation of orthopedic and sports injuries. Adam has worked extensively with athletes of all ages and levels of competition, including high school, college, and professional athletes to assist them in their return to levels of peak performance. He develops individualized treatment sessions of care supported by evidence-based literature to provide well-rounded and holistic care. Adam is an active member of the Sports Section of the American Physical Therapy Association.

